

Mary Page

A Pittsburgh native, Mary grew up riding and teaching Hunt Seat Equitation in the western Pennsylvania area. She worked extensively on the Hunter circuit for the Lenehan family, and Fairfield County Hunt Club, traveling up and down the East coast, attending the nation's most prestigious horse shows, such as Devon, Lake Placid and WEF. Upon graduation from the University of Pittsburgh, with a degree in English, Mary continued teaching and riding in Pennsylvania and Illinois, coaching numerous students to year end awards at regional and national competitions. She and her husband have made Fauquier their home since 2002, relocating to Virginia specifically for the horses. They both work tirelessly, improving their family stable and tending to the needs of their three very active budding equestrians.
